

VARIANCE REQUIREMENTS

The applicant shall be required to submit the following information to the Community Development Department, 655 North 1250 West. Additional information may be requested after the formal application is received.

1. Application	A completed Variance Application must be submitted to the Community Development Department at 655 North 1250 West.
2. Description of the Variance	Description of the Variance location, why a variance is needed and how much of a variance is requested. Remember to give a Zoning Code reference
3. Explanation	An explanation of how the application satisfies the variance standards set forth in section 12-21-130(e) of this section.
4. Plot Plan	A plot plan showing: Applicants name, site address, property boundaries and dimensions, layout of existing and proposed buildings (Including height), buildings within 150 feet, parking, landscaping and utilities, adjoining property lines and uses within 100 feet of the subject property, an elevation plan drawn to scale showing elevations of existing and proposed structures. Topographic map may be requested
5. Other information	Any other information reasonably determined by the Zoning Administrator or Board of Adjustment to be pertinent to a requested variance.
6. Fees	$250.00 Board of Adjustment fee, plus any additional costs that may accrue for legal and/or engineering services.

PROCEDURES FOR A VARIANCE

1.	Submit the Variance Application, to the Community Development office located at, 655 N. 1250 W.
2.	After the application is found to be complete, staff reports will be written. The Board of Adjustment will schedule and hold a public meeting. You will also be notified of the time and place of the public meeting.
3.	After consideration the Board of Adjustment will approve, approve with conditions or deny the application. After the Board of Adjustment makes a decision the Zoning Administrator will send you written notice of the decision.
4.	12-21-150(e) Approval standards, the Board of Adjustment may grant a variance if :
	a. Literal enforcement of any provision of this title would cause an unreasonable hardship for applicant that is not necessary to carry out the general purpose of this tile;
	b. There are special circumstances attached to the property that do not generally apply to other properties in the same zoning district;
	c. Granting the variance is essential to the enjoyment of a substantial property right possessed by other property in the same zoning district;
	d. The variance will not substantially affect the General Plan and will not be contrary to the public interest;
	e. The spirit of the Zoning Ordinance is observed and substantial justice done.
5.	The Board of Adjustment may not find unreasonable hardship unless it is located on or associated with the property and comes from circumstances peculiar to the property, not from conditions that are general to the neighborhood. The Board of Adjustment may not find an unreasonable hardship exists if the hardship is self-imposed or economic
6.	The Board of Adjustment may find that special circumstances exist only if the special circumstances relate to the hardship complained of and deprives the property of privileges granted to other properties in the same zone
7.	The Board of adjustment may impose additional requirements that will mitigate any harmful affects of the variance. A variance more restrictive than what you have requested may be authorized when the record supports your right to some relief, but not to the extent requested.
8.	If you or any person is adversely affected by a final decision by the Board of Adjustment regarding a variance you may appeal that decision to the district court as provided in Utah Code Ann. 10-9a-801, as amended.
9.	Other approval or construction applications may apply. A Variance has no expiration date and runs with the land.
